Attractions for the Boys' Brigade Tourney.

A great deal of interest is shown amongst the business houses of this City in the Advertising Tourney of the Boys' Brigade, to be held in the Hawaiian Opera House next Saturday night.

So far twenty firms have signified their intention of entering into the competition and the kinds and nature of the advertising will be varied, and, above all,

Each firm is allowed four minutes in which to show its specialties, which is considered by a number of the firms far too short for any elaborate exhibit. & Co. However, some of the most prominent firms intend to give the people their

'money's worth." The public has also taken a great interest in the proposed Tourney. Mr. J. P. Cooke, treasurer of the Tournament, reports a very heavy sale of tickets, being far in excess of what was expected. The majority of the firms interested in the competition, when interviewed in regard to what, their displays would be, winked the other eye and grew very Edwin H. Paris, secretary of E. Hall & Son, when asked, said: "It is hardly fair to give away our plans, seeing it is to be a competitive show, ing it is to be a competitive show, in the competitive show, in the competitive shows a competitive show. tender stock; free from first prize. The Bailey Honolulu Cyclery promise to give an exhibition of the trials of a plumber, interspersed with some comic songs by Mr. Bailey. The Hobron Drug Co., Ltd., has not as yet decided as to what the nature of their display will be, but promise something very interesting.

The California Feed Co. will extol the merits of "Arabic" paint to the public. H. A. Gartley, general manager of the Hawaiian Electric Co., Ltd., expected to make a very elaborate exhibit and ordered considerable quantities of material from the Coast, but owing to the expected visit of President McKinley, it undertake any work outside of that city. A very beautiful sign, built by the company, will be exhibited, together consisting of engine and dynamo to produce current for the same. The company will also supply the lighting of the building, and all special lighting for the

From the Maine Farmer, Augusta.

There are many women all over the land who are earning a living by the use of the needle. Confinement in close rooms and the trying nature of their work often causes them to grow pale was made impossible for sign-makers to and wan and to experience a feeling of constant weariness. This goes on, sometimes, until nature rebels and health Hawaii nei, aloha. breaks down. There is one way and with a small complete generating plant only one way to restore the impaired vitality, and that is to strengthen the worn-out nerves and build up and nourish the impoverished blood. If the blood is kept healthy and rich and the nerves strong, new life and energy will soon be felt. This was the exmain a secret until the eventful night; perience of Mrs. Addie R. Holt, a dress-Whitney & Marsh, Pacific Mutual, Dg. maker of No. 73 Bridge street, Augus-

"About five years ago I began to experience a worn-out feeling. Sometimes I would lie in bed for a day or so, but my dressmaking work obliged me to keep up, even when I did not feel able to be about. I suffered from female troubles, and last spring I had rheumatism in my left arm and also a pain in my left side in the region of my heart.

In August a friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale Peo-Committee on Arrangements - E. R. ple, and I began taking them imediately. I commenced to improve in about two weeks, and in three months my weight increased from 121 to 133 pounds. Since taking the pills I have had no return of the pain in my arm nor near my heart.

"I am still taking Pink Pills for Pale committee on newspaper publicity, and the following gentlemen were placed on ing them to all who say that anything

Love and laughter are not strangers; They who love are light of heart. Love and laughter, mirth and music, Are of life the sweetest part. Love's a universal language-So is laughter-ha ha ha;

But where's a word so full of music As Hawaii's "Aloha"?

Aloha ha ha ha; aloha na ha ha-Mingling with the music of a far-away guitar-Merry voices sing And with laughter ring-

As the moonlit waves were breaking On Hawaii's coral strand, Neath the brow of old Leahi, Where the south wind kissed the land Once there met a dark-eyed malden And a lad who loved her well-Tho' their hearts with love were laden, Timid tongues were loth to tell.

Aloha ha ha ha; aloha ha ha-Love and laughter mingle to the tune of a guitar-Happy voices sing And with laughter ring-

Suddenly the calm of evening Trembled at sweet music's sound; With the message or the music, Hearts and tongues their courag
